Grand Knight's Letter

Brothers,

We just about completed our executive officers election process at our last meeting. We have one guard position vacant at this point but I am sure we will fill that role at our next meeting. We will also welcome two new members to our Council at our June general meeting. Our first degree team has practiced and will conduct an Admission Degree May 30 at our chambers. You can come out at 7 PM to participate. Please come out to meet them and your other Brother Knights. You are always welcome and appreciated whenever you can come out. There is not a lot of change from last year's executive to this upcoming year. This is somewhat of a concern as we need more members to assume a more active role in the life of our Council. Each of us has talents to offer. Don't hide yours under a bushel basket, but let them shine in service to others through our work as Knights. We have members with plenty of experience in various roles that are willing to assist you should you need guidance or clarification on anything. As always, a new year begins with our planning for challenges ahead and that is where you can make a difference. You can start by planning to attend our June meeting and more meetings throughout the year to see where you can help. You could be a part of our Council's fundraising efforts in one or more events. This leads to support for our church, community and wider support for our neighbours, such as the help given by our state office to those affected by the recent floods in the Ottawa / Gatineau area. The list of those we support in our own community is long, and even longer when we add those initiatives supported at our state and supreme level. You can volunteer your time and talents and be part of this support, such as the over 1000 ultra sound machines the Knights have donated to pregnancy centres or the financial support given to Cardinal Ranjith in Colombo, Sri Lanka, for his use in the rebuilding and repair of his Christian community in the aftermath of the terrorist bombing of a church filled with worshipers on Easter Sunday.

So, please come out whenever you can. See what is new and catch up where you need to. Ask a Brother Knight to come out with you to share an opportunity to put your faith in action by serving your parish and community at large.

Fraternally,

Mike Sangregorio

Brothers,

I would like to remind you that we have Mass being offered on Tuesday June 4, 2019 for our late Brother Edwin Siedle. Mass will begin at 7pm at St. Mary's. Our general meeting will begin immediately after Mass, so I ask that you all plan to attend Mass before the start of the meeting.

On Saturday and Sunday June 15/16, we will be distributing our "Change the World by Caring for Others" pamphlets at each Mass during the Father's Day Weekend. I will be asking for volunteers to assist with this for each Mass at our General Meeting. We have 300 pamphlets to hand out so we will distribute 100 at each Mass. Let me know which Mass you will be attending and can help with so I can get this organized.

Please wear your badges or any Knights of Columbus identification whenever you are at Mass or helping around the Church. This not only promotes the Knights, but I believe that it helps with recruitment. Sometimes just noticing the badge will spark a conversation from a new parishioner and could be all it takes to get them involved. It happened to me just last weekend while I was speaking to a new member to our congregation. This gentleman has recently moved into our area and was looking for a registration card for St. Mary's. Needless to say, that during our conversation I brought up the Knights and he seemed interested. I will follow up with him, but I ask that we all do the same. When we wear our badges, it helps to break the ice and makes it known you are from St. Mary's, which lets any newcomers know that we are happy and able to assist with information about our Parish and community.

Fraternally,

Domenic Sanfilippo, PGK

SAINT OF THE MONTH

St. Justin Feast Day June 1

Justin never ended his quest for religious truth even when he converted to Christianity after years of studying various pagan philosophies. As a young man, he was principally attracted to the school of Plato. However, he found that the Christian religion answered the great questions about life and existence better than the philosophers.

He chanced upon an old man, possibly a Syrian Christian, in the vicinity of the seashore, who engaged him in a dialogue about God and spoke of the testimony of the prophets as being more reliable than the reasoning of philosophers. Moved by the aged man's argument, Justin renounced both his former religious faith and his philosophical background, choosing instead to re-dedicate his life to the service of the Divine. His newfound convictions were only bolstered by the ascetic lives of the early Christians and the heroic example of the martyrs, whose piety convinced him of the moral and spiritual superiority of Christian doctrine. As a result, he thenceforth decided that the only option for him was to travel throughout the land, spreading the knowledge of Christianity as the "true philosophy." He then travelled to Rome and began teaching and was eventually denounced to the authorities. Justin was tried, together with six companions, by Junius Rusticus, who was urban prefect. The court record of the trial is preserved:

The Prefect Rusticus says: Approach and sacrifice, all of you, to the gods. Justin says: No one in his right mind gives up piety for impiety. The Prefect Rusticus says: If you do not obey, you will be tortured without mercy. Justin replies: That is our desire, to be tortured for Our Lord, Jesus Christ, and so to be saved, for that will give us salvation and firm confidence at the more terrible universal tribunal of Our Lord and Saviour. And all the martyrs said: Do as you wish; for we are Christians, and we do not sacrifice to idols. The Prefect Rusticus read the sentence: Those who do not wish to sacrifice to the gods and to obey the emperor will be scourged and beheaded according to the laws. The holy martyrs glorifying God betook themselves to the customary place, where they were beheaded and consummated their martyrdom confessing their Saviour in the year AD 165. The church of St. John the Baptist in Sacrofano, a few miles north of Rome, claims to have his relics. Justin is known as an apologist, one who defends in writing the Christian religion against the attacks and misunderstandings of the pagans. Two of his so-called apologies have come down to us; they are addressed to the Roman emperor and to the Senate.
